STILL FLURRIED.

The Stock Market Jumping Every Which Way.

LONDON THE KEY OF THE SITUATION.

The Raid On Villards—What the Clearing House People Say—Everything in Confusion.

WALL STREET, November 12.—When the gong sounded for the opening of business this morning on the Stock Exchange there was a yell and a rush. Pandemonium reigned, and the galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity by a class which only visits the street in times of great excitement. Richly attired ladies pushed forward for a sight of the struggling brokers, and to the most casual observer it would seem that it was a time of unusual excitement. The market opened stronger than might have been expected, and there was evidently a hopeful view of the situation, despite the fact that early the London advices were not very favorable. The trading so far has been simply enormous, partially in Villards and St. Paul, and several thousand shares have been sold under the rule completing the sales yesterday. These were all in Villards and St. Paul and were believed to be for account of Decker, Howell & Co. The general market declined slightly from the opening, with a 2 per cent drop in Burlington. Villards, however, were strong. It looks now as if the conditions were favorable to a decided improvement. The Clearing House sub-committee, appointed to issue certificates to and the banks, meet at 11 o'clock to issue certificates to such as require them. However, there will be no public announcement as to what banks are in trouble. In view of the fact that London is regarded as the main factor of the situation, it may be important to know that bullion is being shipped from many financial centers to that point. Half a million silver bars go forward today on the steamship Saale. Cable advices state that Russia sent 2,000,000 francs in gold and will send 2,000,000 additional.

LONDON, November 12.—On the Stock Exchange at 1:30 P. M. prices for consols for both money and account compared with yesterday's closing prices show an advance of ¼; Canadian Pacific, 103¾; Illinois Central, ½; St. Paul common ¼. At 12:45 P. M. the market was quiet. American securities had fallen since the opening, but other securities were firmer. Consols had fallen ¾, and the entire market was weaker, especially for American securities. At 1:30 P. M. the market was still weaker, and it was rumored that a financial house was in trouble.

WALL STREET, November 12, 10:05 A. M.—The stock market opened excited, but higher for the general list. The interest seems centered in Villards, and on the tremendous sales of Northern Pacific and North American advanced two points over last night's closing. At 10:15 A. M. the general list shows gains over last night of one to three points. The market continues active and excited, but the upward tendency remains. Northern Pacific common sold at 20¾; preferred, 59; North American, 18.

WALL STREET, November 12.—The early buying was very urgent, resulting in further gains of ½ to 1 per cent, in which Western Union, Union Pacific and some of the specialties were conspicuous. Villards, and especially the Northern Pacific were conspicuously active and strong, common rising 1¾ and preferred 2, touching 20¼ and 59, respectively. The general list, however, soon yielded to pressure, and under the influence of further sales under the rule of the Northern Pacific, North American, St. Paul and a few others for account of Decker, Howell & Co. The downward movement became more pronounced toward the close of the hour, and Burlington dropped 3. Northwestern 1½, while the Villards lost their advantage and North American retired 1 point. The fluctuations among the specialties and low priced stocks was extremely wide and irregular, while the entire market was feverish in the extreme throughout the hour. Later, the Villards again showed strength and the list followed. The market at 11 o'clock was active, and firm to strong, but generally at something under first prices, though better than those of last night. At 11:25 o'clock Villard's continued strong and were now at the highest figures of the morning. Northern Pacific common, 20½; Preferred, 60¾; North American, 20. An Associated press reporter interviewed President F. D. Tappen of the Gallatin National Bank and a member of the clearing house committee. He says: "Our committee is now in session signing certificates, but the indications are that the issue will be very small, probably not more than $5,000,000 against $7,000,000 in 1884. There is nothing in the situation, so far as it affects the associated banks, at all disturbing, and not the slightest reason to anticipate any disturbance in the finances of this center. Our action yesterday in deciding to issue certificates was merely precautionary. We did not anticipate any disaster, but believed it the part of wisdom to forestall rather than have to meet it. We are entirely satisfied that the situation will improve."

A circular was issued last night to the stockholders of the North American Railroad to meet this morning to discuss the situation. The meeting is now in session and there are rumors of the formation of a German syndicate to protect the Villards.

The Bank of North America was a creditor at the clearing house today, and the officials state they are again in good shape. A meeting of the directors is now in session.

The stock market developed new strength after 11 o'clock, and while money was at 13 per cent and interest, prices rose materially and the extreme fluctuations of the first hour still continued, but a better tone was noticed all over the list. Another advance in the latter portion sent North American to 20¾. Northern Pacific 21 and Preferred 62, although these prices were not held long. Among the usually active stocks there was less animation, but the improvement for the hour exceeded one per cent in many cases, St. Paul, Atchison, Burlington and some of the inactive specialties being the most conspicuous. The trusts were comparatively quiet. At noon the market was active and strong, generally at the best prices of the morning. The decision of the New York Clearing House to issue certificates to be used in the settlement of balances allayed apprehensions of a bank panic, and, in that respect, had a beneficial effect in helping the receivers. Receivers White and Slocum, of the sugar trust, have taken possession of all the properties and affairs of the trust, and have established their headquarters at 117 Wall street.

The meeting of the North American Railroad Company is over and the statement is authorized that the company has but few creditors. These are strong, financially, and have agreed to see the company through and that the assets of the company are wholly intact.

WALL STREET, November 12.—1 P. M.—The market, under the influence of sales under the rule, somewhat declined from best prices, lacking support from London. The market is quiet and comparatively steady. The Bank of North America was a heavy creditor at the Clearing House. The bank will pay over to the assignee of Decker, Howell & Co a large sum as differences on sales of securities held by the bank as collateral for loans and sold yesterday.

LONDON, November 12.—At the close prices compared with 12:30 P. M. showed a decline of ¾ for consols for money, and for account and in American securities farther fractional declines, with the exception of Illinois Central, which was quoted at an advance of ¼. The close was steady.

WALL STREET, November 12.—2:10 P. M.—Money is more plentiful. The market shows the effect of buying by commission houses for long account. The purchases are largely paid for, and will tend to relieve the situation by withdrawal of these stocks from the street. The feeling is that speculation will rule feverish for a few days, until the settlements between the banks and the suspended firms have been adjusted, but it is believed the element of danger has been withdrawn from the market. Good buying orders are coming from the interior of the State.

THE FAILURES

Due to the Current Excitement in the New York Market.

NEW YORK, November 12.—J. C. Walcott & Co., 32 Pine street, have announced their suspension on the Stock Exchange. The house was generally considered solid. It is not believed the failure will have any effect on the market.

The failure of Walcott created little surprise. The house, though a good one, had but a small interest in the market. Their sales under the rule for account aggregated less than 2000 shares, distributed among all the active specialties. Walcott refuses to make a statement.

Members of the brokerage firm of C. M. Whitney & Co., which assigned yesterday, filed separate assignments this morning.

HAS GOULD CONTROL?

A Rumor That He Has Got His Claws on Union Pacific.

NEW YORK, November 12.—George Gould refused to talk this morning in regard to the rumor that his father had secured control of the Union Pacific. Russell Sage expressed the belief that Gould had obtained control of the road and said that was just what was needed to straighten out the railroad situation.

BOSTON, November 12.—President Adams of the Union Pacific, in an interview in regard to the statement published this morning that Jay Gould had secured a controlling interest in the Union Pacific said he was absolutely ignorant of the alleged facts in the Gould interview, and he greatly questioned whether Gould ever made the remarks attributed to him. A director of the Union Pacific said he did not believe a word of the story.

BOSTON, November 12.—A special from New York says Gould was asked this morning whether he was securing control of the Union Pacific. He replied he was not giving away his own business, and further said: "I am not buying anything I can't pay for."

A BLAZE IN BIGGS

Costs $18,000 and the Life of a Boy.

BIGGS, CAL., November 12.—The Hamilton Hotel block, a three-story frame with a two-story addition, was burned this morning. The fire started in a millinery store in an addition, and spread to the main buildings. Two dwellings, some hay sheds and a livery stable, Arowse's saloon, the buildings and a number of other places were consumed. The north wind was all that saved the entire town. The losses aggregate about $18,000; insurance, $10,000. A boy, aged about 15 years, and registered as John Beck, but otherwise unknown, perished in the flames.

BERLIN, November 12.—The Emperor opened the diet of Prussia today. In the speech from the throne he said that in view of his friendly relations with all foreign States, which had been further strengthened this year, the country could look forward with confidence to the preservation of peace. The speech also announced that bills would be introduced for reform in taxation, the organization of provincial councils and the establishment of elementary schools.

SCALPED TICKETS

Good in Minnesota When Presented by an Innocent Purchaser.

ST. PAUL, Minn., November 12.—Judge Vanderburgh of the Supreme Court handed down a decision which settles the question of the validity of a railroad ticket purchased of a ticket broker or scalper. He affirms the liability of the railroad company to accept such ticket when offered by an innocent purchaser. The decision grows out of a suit against the Northern Pacific involving those points.

MURDER OF IVETT.

His Brother-in-Law Suspected of the Crime.

THE VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY.

Searching For a Clue—A Fatal Fire at Biggs—The Players' League Supposed To be Dead.

MERCED, November 12.—Who murdered John Ivett, the wealthy rancher, is still unknown. Ivett was found lying upon his face in a pool of blood, with one foot in the cellar door, and under him was a piece of a whip, which none of the ranch hands recognize. Doctors Cassidy and O'Brien state that every bone in the murdered man's head was broken by the force of the blow, as well as the door of the cellar and a lamp, which was found beside him. The murderer had struck the blow just as the old man opened the door, it is supposed, to treat his guest to wine. In Ivett's study was found a half finished letter to his young wife, who was at San Francisco but has now returned. At the inquest the ranch hands testified that Ivett left them after supper on Sunday evening to go to his residence. August Olson, Ivett's brother-in-law, had been on the ranch since Thursday afternoon, but later he left, saying he might return that night or go to his mother's near La Grange. Ivett insisted on his returning to the ranch and this Olsen admitted on examination. He also admitted that he carried a hammer to Ivett's on Friday, but claimed he lost it from his saddle, where it had been tied. He identified as his rope bridle which was shown him and when asked how he accounted for the spots of blood on the rope, said he did not know. On being asked if he cut his finger lately, he said: "I don't know—yes, I did scratch my finger; it might be from that." The Coroner's jury returned a verdict, after an hour's deliberation, that Ivett was murdered by some person unknown to them. The Sheriff and officers, however, are still on the ranch, and it is believed that they have a clue, as the bloody footprints of the murderer have been accurately measured.

THE BALL PLAYERS.

It Is Believed That the Players' League Is Dead.

NEW YORK, November 12.—The annual meeting of the National Baseball League convened today. Delegates were present from New York, Brooklyn, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, and Indianapolis. From some talk with the league magnates, the impression was received that the Players' League was virtually dissolved, while the players have appointed committees with the idea of continuing another season with a consolidation of the clubs of the Players' League and the National League in this city, Brooklyn and Pittsburg, certainly, and Buffalo out of the Players' circuit. It is unlikely that the financial men behind the Players' League will attempt to go on with clubs only in Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston and Cincinnati.

TO AFFORD RELIEF.

The San Francisco Sub-Treasury May Telegraph Funds.

WASHINGTON November 12.—The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the Assistant Treasurer at San Francisco to receive deposits of funds from bankers desiring to transfer the same by telegraph to the Assistant Treasurer at New York. This is done to enable persons at New York having funds in San Francisco not needed there to transfer them for immediate use to the New York department, also to accord the privilege to other points where there are sub-treasuries, should it act as a means of affording relief at the present time.

NOT ANY CONTEST.

The Nephews Will Not Fight Dr. Merritt's Will.

THE COMPROMISE IS ALL ARRANGED.

The Terms on Which the Settlement Was Made Are Not Yet Ready to be Given to the Public.

There will be no contest of the probate of the will of the late Dr. Samuel Merritt so far as his two nephews are concerned. A compromise with them has been agreed upon.

When Dr. Merritt's will was opened it was found that his two nephews, James P. Merritt and Fred A. Merritt, had not been very munificently provided for.

The will gave to Fred A. Merritt an annuity of $300 for ten years and the remission of a debt of $4000. The debt was outlawed. James Merritt was given a plain annuity of $500 for ten years.

These crumbs from the table of a fat estate were not satisfactory to them, and they soon took steps toward contesting the probate of the will. They secured the services of W. W. Foote, and entered into an agreement with him, whereby he was to press their claims to a conclusion for a certain contingent fee.

Mrs. C. M. Garcelon, the sister of Dr. Merritt, to whom was bequeathed the bulk of the estate, did not desire a bitter, legal contest, so negotiations looking toward a compromise of the claim of the two nephews were entered into between Mr. Foote, Judge John A. Stanly, attorney for Israel Lawton and Henry Rogers, the executors under the will, Mrs. Garcelon and Noble Hamilton, her attorney. These negotiations are about concluded. In fact it is safe to say that the terms with the nephews are all arranged.

While the negotiations were pending the nephews were shipped off up to Sissons in charge of Myron T. Dusinbury, the Ninth street real estate agent. Though they are still there under the watchful eye of Mr. Dusinbury, they will be sent for at once to conclude all arrangements and enter upon their inheritance.

Judge Stanley was seen this morning in regard to the matter, but he said he was not yet in a position to say anything for publication. He admitted that negotiations looking toward a settlement were well under way, but that, as yet, they were not so definitely concluded as to make it proper for him as an attorney to divulge the terms.

"It will be some days yet before matters will have reached the point where they can be divulged with propriety," he said.

Mr Foote said that so far as he was concerned he was perfectly willing to make the details of the settlement public, but he did not feel at liberty to do so unless given permission by Judge Stanley.

"You can say, however, that there will be no contest," he said. "But as I have negotiated the matter almost entirely with Judge Stanley, it would not be proper to make our arrangements public without his permission. I think I will telegraph the nephews today to come right down."

Mr. Foote's smile and general appearance of satisfaction were such as to indicate that the terms of settlement were very satisfactory to him, and that, while the nephews can hereafter pose as influential citizens, his own remuneration will be more than sufficient to keep him out of the poor house.

Captain and Mrs. Charles Purrington of Maine have arrived in this city and are now at Dr. Merritt's former home. Under the will Captain Purrington was bequeathed $3000.

A rumor prevails that the basis of compromise is that the nephews shall receive $300,000, but that it shall be tied up so that they do not receive the money directly but are guaranteed an income of $10,000 a year each.

THE OFFICIAL WAR.

The Contest Between the Council and the Board of Works.

Mayor Glascock and Auditor Snow and the Board of Public Works held a conference yesterday afternoon which resulted in a declaration of war against the City Council, and from appearances the latter body will wrap itself in its authority and come forth to do battle to the bitter end.

The trouble is over the same old problem of who shall appoint the street laborers and the Board of Works has decided that in case the Council does not rescind its action in the matter, it will enjoin the Auditor from paying the claims of the street laborers. Here is how the matter stands.

Early in October the Superintendent of Streets asked the City Council for permission to employ twenty-four laborers and eight carts in the streets. The Council gave the authority. The Board of Works holds that the power to appoint the men rests with that body.

Hence yesterday the Board of Works instructed the Superintendent of Streets to discharge the men employed under authority of the Council, and notified the Auditor that the Board will refuse to audit the claims of these laborers.

Then came a resolution requesting the Council to authorize the Board of Public Works to employ men and hire horses and carts.

At the meeting Mayor Glascock intimated that he would veto the ordinance introduced last Monday night by Mr. Evans of the City Council, which is intended to empower the Street Superintendent to employ laborers on the public streets and which is looked upon as another direct slap at the Board of Public Works, and which is deemed by the Commissioners of Public Works to be in conflict with the charter provision which they assert gives them jurisdiction of the Street Department.

This afternoon Street Superintendent Wall told a TRIBUNE reporter that he will discharge the men as directed by the Board of Public Works, and, in fact, he had already notified them to quit. Mr. Wall occupies a very unenviable position, for when the Council employs men for him the board discharges them, and when the board empowers him to hire men the Council discharges them.

In regard to the refusal of the board to audit the claims of the laborers, City Clerk Brady said he had sent a communication to the Secretary of the Board of Public Works requesting him to return the claims over to the City Council. Mr. Brady has not received from his request, and this afternoon he will call on Secretary Dana in person and demand the claims on behalf of the Council. The latter body is determined to have its way and will audit the claims of the street laborers. It is not known whether the Auditor will refuse to audit these claims coming from the Council or not. If not, the Council will take steps to try to make him do so. And the end is not yet.

ACCESSORIES.

The Alameda Recorder's Opinion of the Home Protective Association.

ALAMEDA, November 12, 1890.

The final concert under the direction of Professor Bacheider will take place Friday evening in Harmony Hall.

Alameda Parlor, No. 18, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will entertain delegation from Oro Fino and Minerva Parlors, San Francisco, next Friday evening.

Miss Genie Jacquemin, in charge of the central telephone station and postal telegraph operator, has been confined to her room by a severe chest trouble, but is now rapidly recovering, and will resume her duties in a day or two.

Mrs. Lorbenheimer reported to the police yesterday that her house, on Railroad avenue, near Twenty-first street, had been entered by burglars and $55 stolen. Entrance was effected by opening a front window. The police have no clew to any of the burglaries as yet.

City Recorder Crosby, who has been criticised by the Home Protective Association because of his light fines imposed upon saloonkeepers found guilty of selling liquor to minors, does not admire their method of procedure to close up the saloons. The Association employs a little boy to go to a saloon, purchase wine or beer in a bottle, and then they have the saloon-keeper arrested. "I think that they are just as guilty as the saloon-keeper," said Judge Crosby this morning, "for they are accessories to the crime. I told them this when the first case was brought before me, and in sentencing the saloon-keepers I take their guilt into consideration.

THE FIRST EMIGRANT TRAIN.

The Story of a California Pioneer of '41

From the November Century.

On leaving Weston, where there had been so much opposition, we were six or seven in number, and nearly half the town followed us for a mile and some for five or six miles, to bid us good-by, showing the deep interest felt in our journey. All expressed good wishes and desired to hear from us. When we reached Sapling Grove, the place of rendezvous in May, 1841, there was but one wagon ahead of us. For the next few days one or two wagons would come each day, and among the recruits were three families from Arkansas.

Every one furnished his own supplies. The party consisted of sixty-nine, including men, women, and children. Our teams were of oxen, mules, and horses. We had no cows, as the later emigrants usually had, and the lack of milk was a great deprivation to the children. It was understood that every one should have not less than a barrel of flour, with sugar and so forth to suit; but I laid in 100 pounds of flour more than the usual quantity, besides other things. This I did because we were told that when we got into the mountains we probably would get out of bread and have to live on meat alone, which I thought would kill me, even if it did not the others.

My gun was an old flint-lock rifle, but a good one. Old hunters told me to have nothing to do with cap or percussion locks, that they were unreliable, and that if I got my caps or percussion wet I could not shoot, while if I lost my flint I could pick up another on the plains. I doubt whether there was $100 in money in the whole party, but all were enthusiastic and anxious to go.

The Old Woman Wary.

Munsey's Weekly

"I don't admire your selection of a typewriter," remarked McCorkle. "She's ugly enough to stop a clock."

"I didn't select her," replied McCrackle, sadly. "I wish I had, but my wife chose her for me."

Ford Acquitted.

James Ford, who was arrested August 26th, on complaint of Mrs. Emma Eselen for disturbing the peace was found not guilty by a Police Court jury, yesterday, in spite of strong evidence for the prosecution.

The town of Panama is burning, and if the fire is not checked it will put an end to its existence. The case, however, is not entirely without parallel in the history of the world.

A New Sewer.

The sewering of Sixteenth street, from Kirkham streets, has been completed at a cost of $423 63, or 45 cents a foot.

Infectious Diseases.

A case of scarlet fever was reported yesterday afternoon from 307 Third street.

FOX, THE TOURIST.

He Stayed Away From Home Too Much.

MRS. FOX RESENTED HIS INATTENTION.

She Takes Advantage of a Year's Absence of Her Husband, and Now She Is Mrs Chase, Instead.

R. D. K. Fox made one last effort this morning to regain his lost wife. He was unsuccessful, and by the judgment of Judge Gibson she will remain the wife of another. The case was a somewhat peculiar one in many respects. In 1876 Fox located with his pretty wife Helen at West Oakland. The family consisted of the husband and wife and two pretty children both boys. Fox concluded that he would a traveling go, so in 1876 he started. He was engaged in different businesses but always sent some money to his wife, though the average was only $8 per month. For fifteen years Fox was never at home more than three months at a time. On his last trip, after he had been away a year and a half, his wife heard he was at Seattle. She brought suit for divorce on the ground of desertion.

A summons was mailed to Fox at Seattle, but he never received it and the package was returned to Oakland unopened. The divorce was obtained without contest and Mrs. Fox was free to do as she chased. About this time a miner named Chase, appeared upon the scene and played successfully upon the love strings of the divorced wife's heart. Four months after the divorce was granted they were married. Then Fox came scattering home after his journey through the northwest just to see how the wife and family were getting along. After a little inquiry Fox ascertained the truth. He had lost his wife and she was the wife of another. Immediately he employed counsel and made a motion to have the judgment and decree of divorce set aside, on the ground that he had never been served with a summons in the suit. He also filed an answer emphatically denying the charge of desertion. But Mrs. Fox is Mrs. Chase and it would make a pretty mess if such a motion were granted, so Mrs. Chase resisted the prayer of her divorced husband. She was made happy this morning when Judge Gibson denied Fox's motion and ordered that his answer to the complaint be stricken from the files of the court.

MILES DOODY'S CLAIM.

He Asserts That He Is Still a Member of the Fire Department.

When the new city charter went into effect Miles Doody held the position of Second Assistant Engineer, having been appointed by the City Council to serve at a salary of $60 per month. When the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners was organized and in working order the official ax came down on Miles and off went his official head. Mr. Doody has employed Attorney Chapman to sue the city for $60 per month from the time he was dismissed until the present time. His claim is that he was dismissed from service without cause, contrary to the provisions of the charter. The complaint is now being drafted.

Two Appeals Taken.

In the suit of the Occidental Business and Loan Association against H. L. Chapman et al., wherein judgment was given for the plaintiff, the defendants have given notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Sometime since Anthony B. Smith as assignee of the Antisell Piano Company, brought a suit against Marcella D. V. Reed, now Mrs. Gates, to recover possession of a piano, upon which she had paid nearly all the instalments. Judge Gibson decided the suit in her favor, and today Smith gave notice that he will appeal the case to the Supreme Court.

An Inconsistent Defense.

The attorney for J. J. Pennypacker, who is suing the city for salary claimed to be due while acting as City Wharfinger, has demurred to the answer filed by City Attorney Johnson, and charges that the defense made is inconsistent, because, in one place, certain allegations are admitted, while in another place they are denied. Judge Ellsworth will decide the matter in a few days.

Must Answer the Charge.

Several months ago Frank Holm, a driver for Van Dyke's express at Haywards, was given $60 to deliver in San Francisco. He did not deliver the money, however, and disappeared. A short time since he turned up in San Francisco and Constable Ramage of Haywards soon bagged him. Holm has been held to answer before the Superior Court on a charge of embezzlement.

Young Church Objects.

John H. Church, Jr., has brought a suit against the San Francisco Examiner to recover $50,000 damages. A short time ago the paper published an article in which young Church was referred to as a vagrant.

New England Dinner.

Tomorrow (Thursday) evening the ladies of the Eighth Avenue M. E. Church will welcome all their many friends in the Social Hall of the church, corner of East Seventeenth street and Eighth avenue, where a splendid Boston Brown bread and bean dinner will be provided. They will doubtless be largely patronized as they have always been. From 5 to 8 P. M. ample provision for the hungry multitude will be found.

Fitzgerald-Nelson.

Edward L. Fitzgerald and Miss Edith L. Nelson were married last evening by Rev. Father McSweeney at the residence of the bride. Shelby Martin officiated as best man and Miss Maggie Fitzgerald as bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald will live at Claremont.

Ensemble Concert Date.

Arrangements have been perfected to give the first of the Ensemble Club concerts on Tuesday evening of next week, the 18th inst. This is the date of the San Francisco debut of the renowned Hungarian pianist, Aagie Ausder Ohe, but Oakland people will certainly have an opportunity to hear her in this city before the end of the month.

The Guilds of St. Paul's.

The Guilds of St. Paul's Church will hold its annual sale in the Guild-rooms of the church, corner of Fourteenth and Harrison streets, this week, beginning Friday evening, and continuing through Saturday until 9 P. M. The ladies hope for a large attendance.

Admitted His Guilt.

The bail of Joseph Kendry, the sixteen year old boy, who was arrested last Saturday on complaint of Lenharot the candy man, and accused of petit larceny for taking change from his employer's money drawer, was reduced to $25 in the Police Court this morning and this sum was forfeited.

Police Court Business.

The report of Police Clerk O'Brien for the month of October shows a total number of cases disposed of 268; amount of fines imposed, $3276, of which $882 was collected; amount due from Alameda county for felony examinations, $9.

MEASURING THE GIRLS.

University Co-Eds Who Wish to Have Their Proportions Recorded.

The Board of Regents of the State University met yesterday. The Finance Committee audited bills to the amount of $19,-321 19, and were given permission to loan Henry Miller $50,000 at 6¼ per cent, on property valued at between $80,000 and $100,000, located near the intersection of Broadway with Telegraph and San Pablo avenues in this city. The committee was also empowered to loan $19,000 on 6000 acres in Stanislaus county. There remains on hand to loan $27,000.

Instructor Hubbard's salary was fixed at $1500 per annum.

There was an appropriation of $737 to enlarge the gas main to the laboratory. Professor Soule reported that the experimental wells driven under his direction had developed a supply of about 5000 gallons a day. He offered suggestions for the development of a spring and for a catchment reservoir to secure water for irrigation purposes.

Petitions from the students for the improvement of the campus, and for offices for the officers of Blue and Gold, were referred to the Committee on Grounds and Buildings.

A. Caminetti, patron of the agricultural station at Jackson, resigned, and Richard Webb was appointed to the place, conditioned upon the more definite resignation of Caminetti.

H. J. Randal was appointed assistant in the civil engineering department at a salary of $1500 per annum; Isaac Flagg was appointed temporary assistant in the Latin department, and W. C. Allen was appointed student assistant in civil engineering at a salary of $20 per month. Dr. W. Dodge was appointed to the vacancy in the Medical College caused by the resignation of Dr. Mays.

The Law Committee was empowered to take action against a real estate dealer named Knowles, accused of selling lots in a tract partially purchased from the University before he had perfected his title.

On the representation that the lady pupils were anxious to join the classes in physical culture, but could not because of the refusal of the present college physician to make the measurements provided by the rules, it was suggested that a lady physician be employed for their special benefit, but after a protracted discussion of the matter the regents who opposed this plan on grounds of economy carried their point, and a resolution was passed that a physician be engaged to perform the services required for the pupils at large, at a salary of not more than a $1000 per annum.

AND THE BAND PLAYED.

Republican Enthusiasm Finds Expression at San Leandro.

SAN LEANDRO, November 11, 1890.

Miss Ethel Burnett has been confined to her home with a severe cold for the past few days.

Miss Kittie Muntz has been visiting friends in San Francisco this week.

Miss Anne Saul spent Saturday and Sunday in San Francisco.

George Waugh of San Francisco was the guest of his brother, H. H. Waugh, on Saturday last.

Miss Maud Nugent of Oakland was visiting friends in town Monday.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. Q. Rideout on Tuesday afternoon, November 18th.

The Republicans of San Leandro expressed their enthusiasm over the late Republican victory by a rousing celebration on Saturday evening last. Over $100 worth of fireworks were set off, bonfires burned, and the San Leandro Band made the air ring for several hours. Daniel Best of the Agricultural Works paraded two traction engines, neatly decorated for the occasion, through the principal streets. After the fireworks were over the band serenaded the successful candidates living in San Leandro.

CHINESE MONEY.

The Difficulties of a Traveler in the Chinese Empire.

"An American in Tibet," in November Century.

One of the most troublesome questions to contend with in traveling in China is that of money. As is well known, the Chinese have no other currency than the copper cash, about fifteen hundred of which are wroth at Peking a Chinese ounce of pure silver, called by foreigners a "tael of sycee." Silver is naturally used in commercial transactions, but as bullion only, and by weight, so every one has to have a set of small scales. The inconvenience that this weighing entails would be comparatively small were all the scales throughout the empire uniform, but such is not the case. They differ considerably from one town to another, and even in the same locality. Thus at Peking there is a government standard, a maritime customs standard, and a commercial standard.

The same diversity is found over all the empire, and the consequent complications and even serious loss in exchange are a continual vexation. Nor is it possible to escape this loss by carrying copper cash with one; for, putting aside their excessive weight, there is not even a standard cash in China. Those used at T'ientsin are not used at Pekin; those at Pekin are not current, except at a discount, at T'aiyuan. Here I bought a very debased kind of cash, giving one "large cash" for four of them; a hundred miles further south these small cash were at par, and even, in a few cases, at a slight premium over the intrinsically more valuable large one.

The Mongols, Thibetans, and Turkestanese have never consented to use the Chinese copper cash, although it is the standard money of the realm. The first named people use silver ingots or brick tea, the others have a silver currency of their own.

PLUCKY JULIA MARLOWE.

A Pretty Story Illustrating the Young Actress's Rare Presence of Mind.

Boston Globe.

Julia Marlowe, the young actress, is possessed of a remarkable presence of mind, as was illustrated a few days since in a severe railroad accident out in Kentucky. Miss Marlowe and her company were going to Bowling Green to fill a one-night engagement. To reach the place in time it was necessary to employ the service of a special train.

The train had gone but about ten miles when it collided with a forty-car freight train, and making one of the most complete wrecks known to the Louisville & Nashville Road, upon which the accident happened. The engineer of the Marlowe special was the most seriously injured, and no doubt would have died had not the young actress seen the dangerous position he was in. He was pinioned between the tender and the cab, and but for Miss Marlowe's discovery of him when she did, he would no doubt have perished there.

Some of the members of her company were badly hurt, and all save herself were scared almost to death. She heard the engineer's screams, however, and quickly went to him, where he was found covered with great blocks of coal. She began throwing the black diamonds with her delicate hands until relieved by others as they slowly caught their wits. Then she saw him safely taken to the next station, where she watched over him until the surgeon assured her he was out of danger.

The next morning Miss Marlow sent to the engineer's wife and family substantial remembrance for his bravery, who had, by remaining at his post of duty, saved the lives of the whole of the company.

When You Move see That You Consult the Whitney Company.

Since its consolidation as one general express company the management of the Whitney and Oakland Transfer Company has perfected the express business wonderfully. Peculiarly constituted wagons have been built for hauling furniture and bulky articles requiring care in handling, and a very important matter for travelers to bear in mind is that trunks and baggage are checked directly at their door for all parts of the United States, thus avoiding the confusion at the wharf or depot. The company does a general express and transfer business and its office is at 422 Ninth street, east side of Broadway.

A LESSON TO WOMEN,

Learned From the Events of Election Day.

MRS. EDHOLM UPON WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

She Believes She and Others of Her Sex Have the Right to the Ballot, to Vote Against the Saloon.

[Contributed and authorized by the Press Department of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.]

The mothers, wives and sisters of American men had a most potent object lesson taught to them on election day. Some of the women who love their home so rapturously and their boys so devotedly that they would die to save them from the saloon, saw the voters vote for the saloon and against the home and were perfectly helpless themselves because the ballot was denied them. It is certainly enough to make the blood boil in the veins of an American woman to see ignorant foreigners who cannot read the ballot they deposit, nor even understand the English language, vote to fasten the saloon with all its horrors on American wives and American children. It is a well-known fact that the great majority of saloonkeepers are foreigners, an American being the rare exception. The saloon and the beer garden is a foreign institution, which even Bismarck, though a beer drinker, and Gladstone, the great statesman, fear as the greatest foe of National life, and it has been transplanted to American soil by the foreigners whom blind politicians, without regard to patriotism, have enfranchised.

No one has greater regard for the honest foreigner, who comes to America to better his condition, than have I. I would cheerfully accord him the right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We would welcome him here to build up a home, to educate his children in our free public schools, to secure better wages for his labor than is possible in Europe, and in every way possible make his life happier, better, and nobler. But as for franchise, he should remain in this country at least long enough to be able to speak and read our language and understand our customs before that sacred gift should be conferred upon him. Our own children have to be in America twenty-one years before they can vote, and yet they ardently love their native country. They understand our language and are educated citizens compared to this vast horde of ignorant foreigners. Hundreds and thousands of American boys and girls are much more competent to vote than hundreds of foreigners who voted in the United States last Tuesday, yet we compel the boys to add eleven more years of education and experience before we clothe them with the right of suffrage. While the girls may be as learned as Mary A. Livermore or Frances E. Willard or Mrs. R. R. Johnston, yet they are the political inferiors of the vilest jailbird who was pardoned twenty-four hours before the expiration of his term so that his suffrage might not be lost to him.

If Americans went to Germany, how long would they have to stay there before any participation in governmental affairs would be accorded them? Even the American hog has been refused admission to foreign shores, but we take men who are not above the hog in intellect, and enfranchise them and make them the political masters of native-born American women, refined, cultured, and loyal citizens. Let there be an educational qualification for citizenship, and then bestow suffrage to men and women alike.

Rev. S. Goodenough, in a recent lecture, gave a most excellent plan for overcoming the evils of an ignorant ballot from the negro of the South and the foreigner of the North. Let Congress pass a law requiring educational qualification, to take effect in the year 1900. Then any man or woman who will not learn to read and write and fit himself or herself for citizenship deserves to lose the ballot. Southern women, with all their conservatism on this question, freely say that woman suffrage, with an educational qualification, is all that will save the South from the evils of ignorant negro rule. This would enfranchise the educated white women, who would largely overbalance the negro vote.

But as Brother Jasper says "The sun do move," and the suffrage sun is not standing still. Woman suffrage sentiment is rapidly increasing. Mrs. Emily Pitt Stevens and a few other brave women electioneered at the polls on election day for the Prohibition party, which will enfranchise women, and American men, almost without exception, declared themselves emphatically in favor of woman suffrage and were indignant that drunken loafers and the lowest scum from foreign shores make the laws that bind in cruel chains American women.

And the women themselves expressed the desire to vote and contrasted their condition of servitude, and its badge of sex, in their native country which boasts itself a land of freedom, with the imported citizen who has not even learned to swear in English. And the first thing these imported citizens do after being enfranchished is in their National Convention of Brewers and Distillers to declare as the first resolution of their platform that "they are unalterably opposed to woman suffrage," thus keeping disfranchised native-born Americans. Oh! American men, is it fair?

One woman said with much feeling: "It makes me furious when I remember that I am a native-born American and my grandfather was killed in the Revolutionary war fighting foreigners, and I gave my sons to the American government and they lie in far-away Southern graves, and yet I cannot help make the laws of my own country, but am, myself, bound by the saloon vote of foreigners."

Even a little boy relieved his mind in this fashion: "Ho, those foreigners vote in this country and they haven't got the hair off their teeth and can't talk United States."

Never mind, little boy, you and I will both vote yet. Oh, brother-hearted men! Don't longer keep your wives and mothers and sisters in subjection to these men who keep the saloon in our midst and ruin every year thousands of the flower of American youth. Your own boys are being sacrificed to the saloon Moloch kept upon American shores by the foreign vote, and if you would give the mother of your boy a vote she would forever blot out the saloons. Oh, men! let the home guard—the splendid mothers of American boys—have a chance to protect them by their vote, and the legalized saloon with all its horrors will forever cease its ravages on the American home.

LINCOLN'S HABITS.

An Early Riser and One of the Most Abstemious of Men.

(Col. John Hay in the November Century.)

The President rose early, as his sleep was light and capricious. In the summer, when he lived at the Soldiers' Home, he would take his frugal breakfast and ride into town in time to be at his desk at 8 o'clock. He began to receive visits nominally at 10 o'clock, but long before that hour struck the doors were besieged by anxious crowds, through whom the people of importance, senators and members of Congress, elbowed their way after the fashion which still survives. On days when the Cabinet met, Tuesdays and Fridays, the hour of noon closed the interviews of the morning. On other days it was the President's custom, at about that hour, to order the doors to be opened and all who were waiting to be admitted.

At luncheon time he had literally to run the gauntlet through the crowds who filled the corridors between his office and the rooms at the west end of the house occupied by the family. The afternoon were away in much the same manner as the morning; late in the day he usually drove out for an hour's airing; at six o'clock he dined.

He was one of the most abstemious of men; the pleasures of the table had few attractions for him. His breakfast was an egg and a cup of coffee; at luncheon he barely took more than a biscuit and a glass of milk, a plate of fruit in its season; at dinner he ate sparingly of one or two courses. He drank little or no wine; not that he remained always on principle a total abstainer, as he was a part of his early life in the fervor of the "Washingtonian" reform; but he never cared for wine or liquors, of any sort, and never used tobacco.

"Overlaying" Woodcuts.

Theo. L. De Vinne in the November Century.

Overlaying is merely an intelligent adjustment of pressure on woodcuts—a pressure adjusted to suit the resistance so that light lines shall have little and solid surfaces much pressure. So treated, light lines will print sharp and clear; the compact and closer lines of middle tints will be smoothly gray, and the solid portions of the dark shadows will be full velvety black. The different degrees of light and shade in every woodcut require this graduation of pressure. The theory seems simple enough, but putting the theory in practice is not.

Every printing machine is made so that the pressed and the pressing surfaces shall be in exact parallel—so that pressure shall be absolutely uniform in every part. If woodcuts were like the ordinary text-types of books and newspapers in their equality of color and their equal resistance to impression, there would be no need of overlaying; no more pressure would be required in one portion than in another. But woodcuts are conspicuously unequal—the thin lines, the close lines, the solid blacks, are irregularly combined. Yet each must have a different degree of pressure.

The Salvation Army.

The serious impression produced by General Booth's offer to apply the organized force of the Salvation Army to the practical work of redeeming "Darkest London" was shown in part by the starting of a subscription by which it is expected to place £100,000 in his hands for use in the way indicated by his recent remarkable work. We who are accustomed to see a little band of rather noisy people march up and down our streets, more or less uniformed and making noises more or less musical, scarcely realize the real amount of useful work done by the Salvation Army and its perfect organization. The Army began twenty-five years ago when one man and his wife took up their stand on a London street. Today it has 2864 corps scattered over thirty-two different countries, with 9349 officers exclusively devoted to the work and 13,687 non-commissioned officers rendering voluntary service. The sum annually raised from all sources by the Army is $1,750,000, and they own a considerable quantity of real estate on which is erected their homes of rest or barracks all over the world. W. T. Stead, the London journalist, who is an enthusiastic admirer of General Booth, gives some facts in illustration of the work done:

Some idea of the demand upon the trade department may be formed from the fact that they sell 22,000 Army bonnets every year to the female soldiers. There are eighty officers stationed in the slums. There are thirty Rescue Homes for Fallen Women (fourteen of which are in England), with 224 officers, which last year dealt with 2200 women. They have five Shelters, accommodating 960 persons nightly, and three Food Depots, dispensing 20,000 meals per day. The annual cost of telegrams in the country alone is over £2000 a year. For the week ending 13th September there were received at headquarters 3574 letters and telegrams, and 7300 were sent out. This is exclusive of circulars, parcels, etc., of which some five or six thousand are issued every week. Three thousand candidates last year offered themselves for service in the Army—1320 were accepted.

The churches have become respectable, aristocratic if you like, and they no longer reach the masses of the people. This is the work which the General Booth mapped out for the army, and its success has been remarkable. He now proposes that it shall take a step further, and work to improve the bodily as well as the spiritual condition of what he calls "the submerged tenth." There are three or four millions of them. A great and doleful army of criminals, paupers, prostitutes, drunkards, tramps; the homeless, the homeless: in short the great Army of Despair. He would organize them, find them food and shelter and work, colonize them on farms in villages or beyond the sea. It is a stupendous task, and if the executive force and ability of the Booths, backed by their perfectly organized and disciplined army is not equal to it, they will at least make a magnificent effort to solve a problem of the sort, which in time gone has usually found its solution in some bloody revolution.

An Election Incident.

A correspondent of a Sacramento paper, who took the trouble to observe the fate of his own ballot when it came into the hands of the election board, tells this curious story:

At the recent election, by way of experiment, I scratched the name of Judge Van Fleet on my ticket, and wrote the name "McGinty" opposite thereto. When the judges came to count my ballot, they were puzzled to know whether it should be counted "no vote," for Van Fleet, McGinty, or scattering. The argument that finally prevailed was that as McGinty was at the bottom of the sea, he could not be running for Superior Judge, hence all ballot should be counted as if McGinty's name were not written. I was an interested listener to the profound discussion and saw my ballot counted for Van Fleet. I held that it should have been counted for whom it was cast, or at least as scattering. What right had the judges to conclude from hearsay evidence that McGinty ever reached the bottom, or to assume that I would vote for an individual whose bones were whitening down in "the dark unfathomed caves of the ocean?" There might be a hundred McGinty's in Sacramento county.

It is clear enough that election boards are not very tolerant of eccentricity.

GENERAL GREELY'S report on the operations of the Signal Service for the year shows that a more intelligent and widespread interest is taken in meteorology in California than in any other State of the Union. This appears from the fact that monthly reports are received by the bureau from 207 voluntary observers scattered all over the State, Michigan coming second with 108, and Kansas third with 102. The climate record kept up by the Southern Pacific Company are referred to as a most useful help to the work of the bureau and the business advantages of the plan are pointed out. The result of all this work is that California is better known climatologically than any other part of the country west of the 100th meridian.

A COMPARISON of the vital statistics of Oakland and Los Angeles for the month of October shows that, with about equal population, Los Angeles had eighty deaths to Oakland's fifty-seven. The excess in Los Angeles is accounted for by twenty-one deaths from consumption while Oakland had but two cases of this sort. In San Francisco there were eighty-four deaths from consumption, or nearly one-sixth of the whole number. Under the vague system of classification adopted by the State Board of Health it appears that "other causes" were fatal in twenty-five instances in Oakland.

LOS ANGELES, having scarcely recovered from the horrors of a State election is already knee deep in a municipal campaign for an impending election. Oakland is not quite ready yet, but the fiddles are being tuned.

THE popularity of a name is a serious disadvantage in a business point of view. There is at present in the San Francisco postoffice a package of election returns marked as sent from "The Mountain House" precinct, but as there are seven places of that name in the State the officials do not know to what county the package should be sent. Oakland sometimes suffers in a somewhat similar manner, as there are about thirty places of that name in the United States.

A WASHINGTON, D. C., reporter got hold of the Hon. Sargent Prentiss Maslin of Sacramento a few days before election, and this is what he said: "The Democrats will certainly elect their State ticket. I think that Mayor Pond will beat Markham for Governor by at least 15,000 votes. Some of the more sanguine of our party put the majority at 25,000, and it isn't unlikely that their prediction will come true."

THE war between the Council and the Board of Works, is, no doubt, not a little embarrassing to Auditor Snow, who stands as a sort of official buffer between the contending bodies, but it is especially hard on the unfortunate workmen, who, having given their time and labor, are compelled to wait for their money, with all the uncertain possibilities of a lawsuit before them.

THE crying need of Oakland at the present time is increased school accommodations. There is scarcely a schoolhouse in the city which is not overcrowded, and the condition of some of them in this respect is disgraceful to a city which has been wont to boast, with good reason, of her school system.

THE Ivett murder at Snelling is one of the darkest mysteries the State has had for many years. So far as known, the old man had no enemies, and robbery was not the motive, for the murderer left $200 on the body. The criminal appears to have escaped without leaving a clue behind him but an impression of his foot in the mud.

THE flurry in stocks in New York will probably not effect the business of the country at large. The fact is, the great body of the people have for some years given up dealing in stocks and have left the big fish to prey on each other.

WHATEVER may be the outcome of the wrangle over the rear guard of the Emin relief expedition, its immediate effect will be to increase the interest in Stanley's lectures. He addressed 14,000 last night.

Governor Waterman's Thanksgiving proclamation breaks the record for brevity.

Buttercup, Poppy, Forget-Me-Not.

Buttercup, poppy, forget-me-not—
These three bloomed in a garden-spot.
And once, all merry with song and play,
A little one heard three voices say:
Shine or shadow, summer or spring—
O thou child with the tangled hair
And laughing eyes—we three shall bring
Each an offering, passing fair!"
The little one did not understand,
But they bent and kissed the dimpled hand.

Buttercup gamboled all day long,
Sharing the little one's mirth and song.
Then, stealing along on misty gleams,
Poppy came, bringing the sweetest dreams,
Playing and dreaming—that was all,
Till once the sleeper would not awake;
Kissing the little face under the pall.
We thought of the words the third flower spoke,
And we found, betimes, in a hallowed spot
The solace and peace of forget-me-not.

Buttercup shareth the joy of the day,
Blazing with gold the hours of play;
Poppy the poppy sweet repose.
When the hands would fold and the eyes would close
And after it all—the play and the sleep
Of a life or a life—what cometh then?
To the hearts that ache and the eyes that weep
A wee flower bringeth God's peace again.
Each one serveth its tender lot—
Buttercup, poppy, forget-me-not.

A Senatorial Nestor.

Kate Field's Washington.

By a vote of 27 to 1 in the Senate, and 47 to 56 in the House, the Legislature of Vermont has chosen Justin S. Morrill to succeed himself in the Senate of the United States. In honoring Senator Morrill Vermont honors herself by a loyalty that has not swerved for forty-two years. Think of it; Entering the Thirty-fourth Congress as a Representative, Mr. Morrill served six terms in the House before succeeding Luke P. Poland in the Senate, where he has been ever since 1867. Coming to Washington at the age of 38, he will return to the Senate for the fifth time in his 81st year.

It is nonsense to claim that whom the gods love die young. It's the young who keep on living, and the old who keep on dying. Years have nothing to do with age. It's all an affair of stomach. Justice Miller and General Belknap succumbed to bad circulation of the blood, while Senator Morrill, eighty years young, lives for the benefit of Vermont and the joy of family and friends. When good digestion waits on appetite, health waits on both. Long life to the young senator.

It is not generally known that ink stains can readily be removed from the fingers with the head of a parlor match. Moisten the ink-stained spot and rub it gently with the head of the match, keeping the skin wet so that it will not be burned.

Certain old people who have lived many years without even seeing a railroad train or steamboat must take a back seat for a woman 70 years old who lives on the Island of Monnegan, Me. She has lived on the island all her life and has never seen a horse.

A funny story is going the rounds that Speaker Reed, upon entering a sleeping car during his recent trip, found himself without a cent, his money having disappeared in some unaccountable way. If he had been leaving the car the deficit could have been explained on the ground that he had just settled with the porter.

The marriage between the widowed Duchess of Manchester and the Marquis of Hartington is officially announced as destined to take place early next spring. In her remarriage the duchess will forfeit all property left to her by the late duke. The bequests to her in his will were strictly conditioned upon her remaining a widow.

All of Emperor William's Hohenzollern ancestors born since 1722, as well as himself, his brothers and sisters, have been rocked in the same cradle. This ancient family couch is a clumsy affair of oak and richly carved. Around the four sides is cut in Roman letters the text: "He hath given his angels charge over thee, and they keep thee in all thy ways."

Thirty-six years ago the first settler built his house in Omaha, and the Indians reluctantly fell back a few miles to the west. Recently Mr. Dorsey addressed an Indian political rally, and began his remarks with the words: "Gentlemen of the Omaha tribe." It is said that a wealthy gentleman of Liverpool has purchased the Garden of Gethsemane, near Jerusalem, in which the Savior passed the night before his crucifixion. The purchase was made in order to prevent speculators from carrying out their schemes of building on the sacred grounds a hotel for the accommodation of visitors and tourists in the Holy Land.—New York Tribune.

Man is said not to be the only creature that shaves. The South American bird called the "mot-mot," the Motmotus brazilensis, actually begins shaving on arriving at maturity. Naturally adorned with long blue tail feathers, it is not satisfied with them in their natural state, but with its beak nips off the web on each side of a space of about two inches, leaving a neat little oval tuft at the end of each.

The Berlin President of Police is considering petitions from no fewer than sixty-nine Hebrew lawyers practicing in the courts of the capital who desire to have their names changed, claiming that their inherited patronymics, such as Meyer, Cohen, Levyson, Abrahams, etc., are hurtful to them in their business. The decision of the President of Police has been deferred until an investigation has been made into an allegation of the anti Semites that the Hebrew lawyers outnumber the Christians by 45 per cent. If such proves to be the case, the petition will probably be refused.

Some time ago a passenger on the North London Railway remarked in the hearing of one of the company's officials how easy it was to "do" the company. "I often travel," he said, "from Broad street to Dalston Junction without a ticket. Any one can do it. I did it yesterday." When he alighted he was followed by the official who asked him in a pleasant and affable way how it was to be done. But the wily traveller was not to be cajoled out of his secret by a few soft words. At last he agreed to tell for a substantial consideration. This was given. "Now," said the eager official, "how did you go from Broad street to Dalston Junction yesterday, without a ticket?" "Well," was the reply, I walked."—Leeds Mercury.

Both Equally Popular.

The Supervisors will call a special election for Road-master of the Castro Valley district, on November 24th. There was a tie between W. P. Ochill and James McCoy, each receiving seventy-nine votes. Singularly enough, two years ago the same two men contested for the same office and the result was then a tie. In the special election at that time McCoy was the winner.

Oh! don't you remember the churchyard, Ben Bolt—
The church in the Catskills, I mean—

Forbade us from fishing the stream?

For e'en though the mornings were dreary, Ben Bolt,
The rest of the day was well spent.

THE CITY OF ALAMEDA

is four miles in length and one mile in breadth, and is traversed by two steam railroads a quarter of a mile apart.

SEWERAGE.

Central avenue extends the length of the city and follows the elevation from which water flows north and south. Chestnut street, Buena Vista, Eagle, Clement and the Grand Boulevard are sewered. Forty miles of sewers are in the streets and avenues of the city. The system is the best ever devised. No city in the State is so well located for drainage, and none so well provided with sewers.

LIGHT.

The town is lighted by eighty-five electric lights.

WATER.

The city is supplied with pure water, pumped continuously from artesian wells directly into the water mains.

STREETS

Are broad, ranging from sixty to one hundred and fifty feet. During the past year about thirty miles of streets have been macadamized, and much more is now under contract. Many miles of artificial sidewalks have been laid, and improvements are still being made at an undiminished rate. Almost the entire front of this property has cement stone sidewalk.

THE PROPERTY.

The property to be sold is the very choicest of the unsold portion of this delightful city. It is situated on high ground in the most desirable locality in Alameda, and is surrounded by fine improvements. The property offered is but a short distance from two steam railroads, and within two to six blocks of a station.

RAILROADS, ETC.

A street car line from Oakland passes along Santa Clara avenue, which is quite near this property. Quarterly hourly trains on the 120 steam trains to and from San Francisco run from 5:30 a. m. to mid-night. Time of transit thirty minutes. Month tickets, allowing one trip to San Francisco daily and return, $8, or at the rate of 8 cents per fare. No fare is charged between points within the city. There is no other city in California where there are like facilities for travel, better climate, better water, or equally good sewerage or sanitary conditions. The growth of shrubbery, flowers and beautiful lawns, the macadamized streets and stone side walks are already giving the city the appearance of a well-cared for park, and are making it the most desirable place for homes in the State. The property offered for sale is thoroughly improved by macadamized streets, artificial stone sidewalks and sewers, and everything is ready for building without the least cost to the purchaser.

H. D. BACON'S GIFT.

Eleven Hundred Dollars to the Young Women's Christian Association.

The New Building to Be Erected for a Home, and the Active Charitable Work of the Society.

To the Editor of The Tribune—SIR: One of the Oakland Ladies now in the East, writes that she has looked carefully through the Oakland TRIBUNE to find something regarding the Home of the Young Women's Christian Association, in which she became interested before leaving the city. Others may be desirous to know, therefore we report that the property recently purchased on Franklin street, near Durant street, is paid for, and the ladies propose proceeding at once to secure funds to erect a building similar to the buildings in San Francisco and Eastern cities used for such purposes. This society for many years hired a building on Franklin street for a Home, but more recently has devoted itself to other branches of work.

The Helping Hand sewing school meets every Saturday afternoon in the Medical College building, Clay street. From fifty to sixty children are there taught weekly to sew, thus enabling them in future years to do at least one thing well. There are weekly meetings for tired mothers, a medical department where the physician weekly receives the sick, and provides, free of charge, the medicine for those too poor to pay. There are two district visitors who provide for the sick at their own homes, secure for them entrance to the hospitals, etc., through friends connected with other institutions. These visitors find many strangers who are discouraged, their daughters unemployed, and they neglectful of church. They are encouraged, provided with employment and their daughters looked after. Such is a portion of the work now being done.

The managers hope to concentrate their work more under one roof when their new building is erected, as well as to be able to provide a home for young women.

Owing to the generous gift of $1100 from H. D. Bacon, the ladies will be able to begin to build much sooner than they expected. Ladies will soon solicit for funds for the building, and the public are earnestly requested not to give money to any person unknown to the giver, as many impostors are about in San Francisco securing gifts for charity. While we ask that no money be given to strangers, we sincerely hope that much may be given to friends!

The Eastern cities have come to feel that if Christian work is necessary for the young men it is no less necessary for the young women, who, in the years to come, make or mar the home life. This work is to be similar to the proposed Home of Moody's in Northfield, where Christianity and practical trades go hand in hand.

The annual meeting will be held on Monday next and will adjourn until after some important business can be transacted. Each member is asked to be present and some generous reader of THE TRIBUNE is asked to send $1,000.

In closing he would ask for definite information, "Is there in Oakland any place, home or building, where little children found at trains, or young girls like the one taken by Mrs. Grove from the jail recently (who was not proved guilty) can be sent. Those who visit our city prison tell us that it is pitiful to see the young children there. But for the kindness of the prison officials and our policemen, what would become of these little children? In past days, the old Sheltering Home took in these unclassified ones, many of whom are children, but according to the will of Mr. Chabot, a splendid work is planned for, but not this. Is there any place, if so, where?

If there is, why do the children go to jail? If there is none, the members of the Young Woman's Christian Association are proposing to open a most inexpensive place, but one where these stray ones may be taken until better provided for, or their friends can be heard from.

As every one must know that it is not conducive to self-respect for young people "to be sent to jail," from whatever cause, it is hoped there is such a Protestant place. If so, let us hear through THE TRIBUNE as soon as convenient where it is. If this work be assumed, it will in no way be connected with the Home of the Association which is to be erected. It will be under another name, in another part of the city, carried on most inexpensively; we hope in the home of a Christain woman who, many years ago, was helped in her darker days by this Association. But the officers are especially anxious not to do this work if some society will see to these little boys, five of whom during the past month have been in police quarters.

PRESIDENT YOUNG WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Found Her Jewelry.

Last Monday Harriet Boyer had a search warrant issued against Susie Davis whom she accused of withholding a gold ring, a gold chain and a fob. The articles were found in the possession of the defendant and were turned over to the plaintiff in the Police Court yesterday without a contest.

To stop Hemorrhages, a well known New York doctor says: "If external the best means is usually pressure either with the fingers or some kind of a bandage. Before binding up a wound it should be thoroughly washned; an astrigent as Pond's Extract should be used to assist the contraction of the blood vessels. If the bleeding is internal, Pond's Extract can also be used to great advantage.

SOUTHER FARM STOCK.

A Great Auction Sale of Brood Mares, Stallions, Fillies and Roadsters.

The first great sale of horses raised on the Souther Farm will be held on Thursday, the 20th instant, at the farm, one and a half miles northeast from San Leandro, at 12 noon. The sale will be by auction, and no by-bidding will make the sale unfair. The entire Souther Farm collection of brood mares, daughters of sires well known as fathers of fast stock, and themselves dams of noted horses; young stallions and fillies of the highest class, good roadsters and horses for general use will be sold at auction on that day. A luncheon will be served on the grounds in the open air if the weather is fine, and under cover if rain should fall. To-morrow, Thursday, will be exhibition day. To inspect the horses take train at First street and Broadway at 12:30 P. M. Carriages will take all who desire to inspect the stock, from the station to the farm and return. Killip & Company will conduct the sale under the direction of Gilbert Tompkins of the Souther Farm.

THE FIELD OF SPORT.

Dr. Hesse's Declination of Dr. Woolsey's Challenge.

SPORTSMEN OPEN THEIR CLUBHOUSE.

Colonel Robinson and President Mone Are Still at Outs—Pitcher Shaw Released.

The Colonel and President Mone are still pegging away at each other. There appears to be very little chance of hostilities ceasing. The Colonel appears to have the best of the argument thus far.

Dr. Hesse will not accept the challenge of Dr. Woolsey to race Lucy against Abdallah. He is willing to contest for a single mile but no further.

Following will be found a resume of the events of the week.

THE UMPIRE.

He Comments on the Quarrel Between the Colonel and Mr. Mone.

Lohman is a prize catcher. It won't be his fault that the Colonels do not win the pennant.

George Van Haltren is expected to arrive in this city any day. He will have much to tell about Eastern baseball.

It is stated that the Southern California League will probably go to the wall before the winter season commences.

Captain Tip O'Neill is a great player on the bench. He has ample opportunity to flash his elegant diamonds at the audience, and he knows how to do it.

The voting contest for the most popular player stands as follows: McDonald, 1637; Levy, 1209; Sweeney, 720; O'Neill, 705; Hanley, 505; Spear, 275; Coughlin, 214; Ebright, 175; Lockabaugh, 150; Lohman, 73.

Patsy Cahill has tried his hand in the pitchers' box again. He was not a failure in the game that he pitched for the Stocktons last Sunday. Many are the ups and downs that Patsy has had in the baseball world, and he's a good all-around player.

Colonel Robinson has succeeded in securing the services of that excellent player, Fred Lange, during the temporary enforced retirement of Captain O'Neill. Fred is one of Oakland's favorite ball players. He retired from the field last year after making an excellent Eastern reputation in order to engage in business with his father in this city.

Colonel Robinson has made no arrangements to retain Kid Carsey for next season, as has been stated. There are better amateur pitchers in Oakland than Carsey, and the Colonel has better judgement than to sign such a player for the rattling team he is going to have next year. Cobb is the only twirler he ought to retain. Here is a man who has the making of a great pitcher.

Dooley was loudly hissed at Haight street yesterday. He was guilty of unprofessional conduct and should have been fined by the umpire. He so badly injured Stapleton of Sacramento as to retire that player from the field.—Exchange. Does the gentleman who wrote this item remember a game last year when Howard of the Sacramentos deliberately ran into Dooley and disabled him so that he could not play again for several days? Nothing was said about that little affair last year. Why do they call it ungentlemanly ball playing this year? Anything to injure the Colonels is the cry of the baseball reporters across the bay. Dooley ran into Stapleton by accident. Howard ran into Dooley for the very purpose of knocking him down.

The damage done to baseball by the fight of the season just finished, is shown very plainly by the little interest taken in the world championship series between Brooklyn and Louisville. A few years ago, when Detroit or Chicago and St. Louis were battling for this same honor, the games were attended by thousands and the excitement over them reached a fever heat. The papers were eagerly watched for, and reports of the games as eagerly read. This season, after the Brotherhood's fight to knock off their shackles, Louisville and Brooklyn are playing to benches that are almost empty and the interest in the games seems to have reached the zero point of indifference. The brotherhood revolt was a pretty costly matter for baseball, and it looks now as if the players would regret it in sackcloth and ashes.—Exchange.

Colonel Tom Robinson is indignant at the manner in which he has been treated by President Mone of the California League. In my mind he is justly indignant and I sincerely hope that he will fight to a finish the little man who wears a big hat, and certain I am that the Colonel will come out ahead. There has been a determined effort on the part of Mr. Mone and other officials of the league to euchre the Colonels out of the pennant this year, and I guess they have succeeded. At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the league last week it was on the motion of Mr. Mone, prompted by Jake Dressler, the baseball man of the Examiner, that Captain O'Neill was ordered to pay a fine of $100 or stand suspended from the league. What right had Dressler, an outsider, and an enemy of the Oaklands, to suggest anything? Does he run the California League? Is he in the habit of suggesting what shall be done by the directors of the league? Indeed, if this be true, it would be better for the managers not to hold a meeting at all, but just to do his bidding. But this is only a side issue in the case. Mr. Mone was among those who voted to fine the Sacramento club $500 for playing Borchers. It is now his duty to collect that fine or expel the club from the league before they play any more games. He has not collected the fine, neither has he expelled the club from the league as the rules require. Colonel Robinson was fined $20 for Captain O'Neill's conduct. He has paid it. O'Neill was ordered to pay a fine of $100 or be suspended. The Colonel has allowed him to be suspended, and has played him on the bench. Thus it will be seen that Colonel Robinson has lived up to the letter of the rules. Why then is not the Sacramento Club compelled to obey the same rules which the Colonel has obeyed. Such a statement of facts clearly shows that the Oakland nine has been treated unjustly, and Colonel Robinson has great reason to be angry with Mr. Mone. Certain it is that Mr. Mone does not intend to enforce the rules against the Sacramentos, but when it comes to Oakland he cannot make them strict enough. It is said that the Colonel proposes to play Captain O'Neill this week without paying the fine, no matter what the result may be. If he does this I deem that he makes a great mistake, for he has gone on record in an interview in this paper as saying that he proposes to follow the rules of the League to the letter, and proposes to see that the Sacramento Club does the same. That is the course he should pursue, and it appears to me to be the only proper course that he can consistently take. He should use all honorable efforts to compel Mone to make the Sacramento Club pay that fine. Let it be remembered that the Oakland nine is the best drawing card in the California League, and without them the California League could not exist. The Examiner seeks to poke fun at the interview of the Colonel printed in THE TRIBUNE, but let me say, in this regard, that Colonel Tom meant every word he said, and furthermore, everything he said concerning Johnnie Mone was the truth. To his remarks I might add that Mr. Mone is an exceedingly incompetent man for the important position which he holds, and I sincerely hope that Colonel Tom will carry out his threat to oust the little man from his position next spring. Now, Colonel, don't show the white feather in this fight and you will be commended by all the lovers of clean baseball.

THE UMPIRE.

ABDALLAH VS. LUCY.

Dr. Hesse Will Not Accept Dr. Woolsey's Terms for a Race.

There seems to be very little chance of a race between Dr. Woolsey's Abdallah and Dr. Hesse's Lucy. A short time since Dr. Woolsey expressed his willingness to match his trotter against Lucy, best three out of five, and each owner to drive his own horse. Dr. Woolsey suggested at the time that the gate receipts should be donated to some charitable institution. Dr. Hesse in discussing the matter yesterday stated that he is not willing to agree to the terms as suggested by Dr. Woolsey. He says, however, that he will match Lucy against Abdallah for a single mile, the race to take place under the auspices of the Gentlemen's Driving Association.

On Friday and Saturday there will be some great racing across the bay. Palo Alto, Stamboul, Sunol, Vida Wilkes and Freedom, six of the greatest horses on the turf, will trot to beat records. There will also be racing for a special purse of $500. The races will be conducted under the direction of the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association.

ROBINSON VS. MONE.

The Merry War Between the Magnates Still Continues.

The merry war between Colonel Tom Robinson and President Mone of the California League still continues. The Colonel has been indulging in some more newspaper talk and has said many wicked things about Mr. Mone. The latter retorts by saying that he staked the Colonel in the business; went his security on a lease for the Haight street park and in many ways assisted him to get a good financial start. These assertions the Colonel says are absolutely false and states that he was staked by J. T. Moran of this city, who went his security for the lease of the grounds across the bay. The war of words is still raging.

THE OPEN SEASON.

The Alameda Sportsmen at Their Hunting Grounds.

The members of the Alameda County Sportsman's Club formally opened the season at their preserves on the Sonoma marshes Saturday evening. The club has a lease of vast acreage of marsh land, over which no person can hunt except a member of the club, or a guest holding a permit from the officers of the club. Secretary Harry Houghton made elaborate preparations at the clubhouse to receive the members. Everbody had a good time Saturday night, and on Sunday they enjoyed a hunt on the marshes.

Pitcher Shaw Released.

Pitcher Shaw has been released by Colonel Robinson. He expressed a wish to return East, so the Colonel gave him the chance. Shaw was imported from the East about two months ago, but proved a failure.

At your request I purchased samples of the Royal Baking Powder in open market, which I examined chemically and compared with a number of others bought at the same time.

The package not only contains full weight, but an excess of 2.5 per cent. I detected no impurity or adulteration, and I consider this baking powder to be uniform, pure, reliable and equal if not superior to any I have examined.

I find one pound of the Royal to contain 200 cubic inches more available Carbonic Acid gas than the best of the others.

A KITCHEN GARDEN.
Will be organized for little girls from 7 to 12 years, at the Oakland Seminary, (Mrs Blake's) corner of Eleventh and Clay streets, on Monday, October 27th, at 3 P. M. This hour is selected on account of not interfering with the regular studies of those attending school. The session will be from 3 to 4:30. A Kitchen Garden Trainer from the East will be in charge. Those desiring the opportunity please apply at once. As the Kindergarten teaches the child the rudiments of knowledge and of science by means of games and songs so the Kitchengarten teaches little girls the rudiments of housekeeping where they are trained in every department. Table setting, table manners, waiting on doors, good manners for girls, folding napkins, towels and doyles, etc., all taught by games and bright songs.

A horse belonging to Poundmaster O'Connell, of Oakland, got stuck in a mudhole on a road leading over the hills yesterday, and was extricated only by the combined effort of two teams after two hours' work.

The special election to take place on Thursday, the 22d inst., is a subject which is discussed considerably. The principal question to be settled is how to select the freeholders to be elected. It will be very necessary to select them in such a way as to arouse no factional squabble.

A. Johnson, who was arrested for disturbing the peace of the girls and women at the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, was discharged by a jury before Judge Welcker. Mr. Johnson's offense consisted of asking the women to marry him. It is believed that he is slightly demented.

Mrs. M. B. Curtis stated yesterday to a TRIBUNE reporter that, seeing that some residents of Peralta Park are dissatisfied with their property, Mr. Curtis had a proposition to offer them. He will purchase their land at its market value, and if they have houses built he will remove them without expense to them to any property which they may purchase in the town and away from the park. The Peralta Park Hotel has been rented, and the corporation that will have charge of it desires to have all of the park for the use of the guests of the hotel. The grounds will be laid out in walks, etc., and a number of neat cottages built for families who desire to be by themselves and board at the hotel. Mrs. Curtis states also, that any of the dissatisfied ones may find out that the proposition is no "bluff" by applying to M. B. Curtis & Co., at the Occidental Hotel in San Francisco, where they may meet the capitalist who is backing Mr. Curtis. She says that satisfactory terms will be assured as they are very anxious to buy back every foot of property which has been sold in the Park.

The driver of the Lorin butcher wagon left a boy 7 years old in charge of his horse while he went into the house of Mr. Healey on Forty-third street to deliver an order. The horse became frightened at the cackling of some geese and started on a galop into Telegraph avenue. The boy reined him up against a fence, where he was caught. Those who saw the affair say the little fellow behaved in a very heroic manner.

S. N. Harrison, whose eye was pierced by the sharp ends of a compass, has, since the accident, been totally blind until today, the uninjured eye acting in sympathy with the other. This morning he was able to open the uninjured eye for an instant, and could see a very little. This afternoon Drs. Brinckerhoff and Mouser examined the eye which was hurt. The lens are injured, and Mr. Harrison will probably lose the sight of one eye at least. He suffers a great deal of pain, and cannot sit up any at all.

A MAZE AT BLAIR PARK.

A Labyrinth of Vines With More Than a Mile of Paths.

The Consolidated Piedmont Cable Company has just concluded an arrangement with A. I. Frick and J. P. DeCamp of Oakland for the construction at Blair Park of a labyrinth or maze with an area of 20,449 feet. There will be sixty-four paths or alley ways, four feet wide, making 6936 feet to travel, but the actual and right road TO THE CENTRE will be only 1640 feet long.

The structure will be made of a substantial lattice work, six feet high and all around will be planted with vines, so that in the spring it will have a magnificent appearance. There will be stations with seats to rest the weary travelers before arriving at their destination, which will be "Israel." On the center there will be an elevated stand or pagoda, where a view may be obtained of the lost tribe trying to gain the same point.

There will be numerous paths when the tribe gets left, and have to seek another until they can find the right one.

Labyrinth or maze are words now used to designate various structures, all of which have one point of resemblance—the complication of their sinuous lines. In fact, the structures and gardens called labyrinths are formed of alleys or paths that cross and intercross each other.

At the maze at Blair Park the visitor will have the illusion of an excursion in the woods, although the ground traversed will not be over 145 feet square.

MUST BE SOME MISTAKE.

A Man Arrested for Stealing, but the Evidence is Not Apparent.

John Doe Rennie was arrested by Detective Shorey yesterday and accused of petit larceny. In the Police Court this morning he pleaded not guilty and will be tried by the court on the 19th. There seems to be some mistake about this arrest. Last Monday W. B. Thompson swore out a search warrant in which Rennie was accused of stealing a game cock and the warrant was served by the detective yesterday, but the rooster could not be found, although Rennie's premises were thoroughly searched.

BEYOND THE BARRIER.

Events That Make Up a Day in East Oakland.

"The Race Problem of the South, Viewed by a Young Southerner Born After the Smoke Had Cleared Away" will be the subject of a lecture to be given on Friday evening at the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, by Rev. Frank Dixon. There will be no admission fee, but it will be necessary to have a ticket of admittance.

Yesterday afternoon at about 2 o'clock James Taylor discovered smoke issuing from the rear end of the residence of William Berry, 409 Eleventh street. He turned in a still alarm to the East Oakland engine house, and on the arrival of the department a tap alarm was turned in. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and the damage, amounting to a few hundred dollars, consisted of a burnt kitchen roof and damaged furniture.

There will be a meeting of Young Men's Institute No. 31 tomorrow evening, at which the Institute will make the final arrangements for its annual ball and entertainment to be given on Thanksgiving eve.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. George B. Alstine, living at the Union Hotel, lost their three-months' old daughter who had been sick for the past three weeks of cholera infantum. The funeral took place this morning.

Rev. D. McNutt of Indianapolis has filled the pulpit of the Pilgrim Congregational Church with favor, and on last Sunday evening a meeting was held, and the proposition of giving Dr. McNutt a call was favorably discussed. There will be a meeting this evening, when the matter will probably be settled.

The Oakland Social Club gave an informal dance last evening at its hall on Fifteenth avenue.

A young lady of Fifth avenue was so unfortunate yesterday as to lose, on the local train, her purse containing $12. The purse is of much value to the young lady, as it is a gift of a friend, and the loss was reported to headquarters. Should the finder return it to the owner a valuable reward will be given.

Yesterday afternoon as the 3:15 local train was going from Brooklyn to Twenty-third avenue station a young hoodlum living near Twenty-third avenue, passing through one of the cars, grabbed a new hat from the head of a Chinaman and at once alighted from the train. A warrant for his arrest has been placed in the hands of Officer Aldrich.

MONE AND ROBINSON.

The Big Manager Replies to the Small League President.

In reply to the statements which Manager T. P. Robinson of the Oakland club recently made about President John Mone of the California League, that official, in a recent issue of the Chronicle, told of the many favors he had done for Robinson, saying that he had given the Oakland manager his baseball start and had gone his security when the Haight street grounds were first leased. All this Mr. Robinson flatly denies. He says he is under no obligations to Mone whatever, and in regard to the statement about the security for the lease of the Haight street grounds, offers the following letter from J. T. Moran, of the firm of Greenhood & Moran, who is President of the Oakland club:

To the Editor of The Tribune—SIR: In reply to an article published in the San Francisco Chronicle of November 11th, concerning C. P. Robinson, who is my business associate, and the manager of our famous Oakland Club, I will state that Mr. Robinson was sought after to become a party to the California Baseball League, and upon being guaranteed that the club would receive a certain guarantee, he placed the Oakland Club, then known as the Greenhood & Moran's, as the fourth club of the League.

In 1887, when the Haight street grounds were leased to Messrs. Robinson, Harris & Finn, I was interested then, as I am now, and I went Mr. Robinson's bond for the required amount, and would have cheerfully done the same then, as well as now, if the amount was several times as large.

Mr. Robinson is a thorough, competent business man, and through his energy the Oakland Club has gained its present high standing with the baseball loving public of California. He has relatives both here and in San Francisco who are able and ever willing to assist him at any time for much greater amounts than the California League would ever require of him. Hoping you will give justice where it belongs, I remain J. T. MORAN.

OAKLAND, November 12, 1890.

Robinson says that next year, when the time comes to elect a President of the league, he will join with the other managers, who are all opposed to Mone, and get rid of that small man with a large hat.

REPRESENTATIVE MORROW.

Chairman Stump Thanks Him on Behalf of the Republicans.

The following letter has been sent to Representative Morrow by the chairman of the Republican State Central Committee:

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO, November 10, 1890.—Hon. William W. Morrow, San Francisco—DEAR SIR: The Executive Committee of the Republican State Central Committee desire to extend to you their sincere thanks for the services rendered by you in the campaign just closed.

When we contrast the result in this State with the results in the Eastern States the victory stands out as the most glorious that the Republicans have ever achieved in California. We have carefully considered the causes which led to this very happy conclusion. In this regard we consider the aid received from you as worthy of special mention, and desire to assure you that we appreciate the sacrifice that you made in crossing the continent for the purpose only of assisting us in this campaign; the placing of yourself entirely in the hands of this committee; the activity displayed by you in canvassing so large a portion of the State in such a short time, and the support given our nominee for Governor, not allowing the fact of your having been rivals before the same convention for the high honor to sway you from the plain path of political duty.

Again we desire to thank you for the distinguished services you have rendered, which we hope will be rewarded by an appreciative public in the bestowing of still greater honors than any you have yet received. Very respectfully,

IRWIN C. STUMP,

Chairman Republican State Central Committee.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

They May Decide to Shorten the Time of a Day's Work.

Last Monday evening the regular meeting of the Painters and Decorators Union, No. 131, of America was held, and Chairman R. P. Poorman presided. Five new members were initiated and four applications for membership were presented.

The Ball Committee reported in the matter of the recent annual ball and entertainment that all expenses had been paid, and the affair was a most complete success, both socially and financially. H. B. Wayne, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, was presented with a handsome badge on behalf of the Union, and a vote of thanks was tendered him for his able and efficient management of the ball.

The principal business of the evening was a discussion of the eight hour question, as the Union has decided thoroughly to understand the matter before advocating a change to eight hours per day. The members have agreed that if the Union decides to ask for eight hours, organized as the Union is at present, there can be no failure, and to assist them in their new movement they have the necessary co-operation of other organizations. The union believes that if it advocates a short day in a proper and honest manner it cannot fail to win the respect and assistance of the public.

Before adjourning the usual programme of recitations and songs was carried out, and the union decided to visit San Francisco Union, No. 140, in a body on Thursday evening next. The union then adjourned for one week.

Henry M. Stanley's Early Experience in This City.

It may not be generally known that Henry M. Stanley, the great African explorer was formerly a resident of Oakland, before he began his public career at Salt Lake. At the time of his residence here Stanley lived in darkest Oakland and was a poor man, when he left for Salt Lake, where his public career began his personal effects were easily packed in a brown wooden box and a small hand valise which were taken to the train by the Peoples Express and Transfer Company, whose office is at 423 Tenth street. The company checks baggage to all parts of the United States.

CONSULT the BARD of the AIR-MOTOR

The shades of night were falling fast
As through the Oakland streets there passed
A youth who bore, 'mid sleet and rain,
The everlasting windmill vane, of
THE AERMOTOR!

In happy homes he saw the light
Of household fires gleam warm and bright;
Around the wooden windmills stood;
Thus from his lips in silent mood:
THE AERMOTOR!

Try not to pass, the old man said;
Dark lowers the Cyclone overhead.
The opposition is strong and wide—
But loud that clarion voice replied:
THE AERMOTOR!

The wooden windmill's withering branch
Drops like an awful avalanche!
And in their place, so light and trim,
That windmill with the iron rim,
THE AERMOTOR!

Its arms and fans are made of steel,
And it never shrinks like a wooden wheel;
It pumps in the lightest winds that blow,
As those who have tried them full well know!
THE AERMOTOR!

Should you want a mill that turns with ease,
The AERMOTOR runs in the lightest breeze:
And none their customers so well please
As R. P. WADDELL, agent for
THE AERMOTOR!
